

Senior Food Box Program (CSFP)

What is CSFP?

CSFP is a program available to low-income seniors over 60 years old who are NJ residents.

What can I expect in my box?

Every month participants will receive a box of non-perishable items supplied by the Community Food Bank of NJ, along with additional fruits, vegetables, bread, dairy, and snacks when available from the Interfaith Food Pantry Network.

How do I sign up?

Contact your building social worker about the program.

When you sign up you will need...

Proof of age: Senior residents who are age 60 and up

Proof of income: Gross Household income at or below 130% of Federal Poverty Income Guidelines:

Single $1,383 monthly or less

Couple $ 1,868 monthly or less

Proof of residency:

Drivers license, state-issued ID, or rental lease

Please contact:

Jessic Revolorio at 973-538-8049 ext. 235

JRevolorio@mcifp.org

2 Executive Drive – Morris Plains, NJ 07950 (p) 973-538-8049 (f) 973-998-5086
www.mcifp.org interfaithfoodpantry@mcifp.org

The Interfaith Food Pantry Network is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Tax ID#22-3618468