

Senior Supplemental Bag Program (SSBP)

What is SSBP?

SSBP is a program available to residents of senior buildings who are in need of emergency or supplemental food.

Food is delivered each month to the housing facility and distributed to the residents by the housing manager or social worker.

What can my residents expect in their bags?

Monthly participants can receive a bag of non-perishable items along with additional fruits, vegetables, bread, and dairy.

Requirements:

Resident cannot be an existing client of the Interfaith Food Pantry

The housing manager must email a list of residents in need each month to Jessica Revolorio

How do I register my residents?
