

Volunteer Application

The Interfaith Food Pantry Network (IFPN) relies heavily on volunteers to help us achieve our mission of feeding Morris County's food insecure families. Most volunteer jobs are considered "staff" volunteer positions which take place Mon-Fri, 9am-5pm, Tues and Wed evenings, 5-8pm, and Sat mornings (9am-12pm); for these, we ask that you commit to a regular schedule. Many of the opportunities are physically demanding and require you to lift and/or stand on your feet for long periods of time.

Upon receipt, your application will be reviewed and based on your interests and availability, you will be contacted to come in for a tour and interview. Thank you for your interest in volunteering at the Interfaith Food Pantry Network! If you have any questions you can reach out to Zoe Garcia at zgarcia@mcifp.org.

Note: that to ensure the safety of our volunteers and the dignity of our clients, you must be at least 17 for most opportunities, with the exception of home delivery which you are welcome to do with your children, provided the client agrees. We offer occasional volunteer opportunities for teens seeking service hours. Contact Zoe Garcia at
